

HERE TO HELP

YWCA Toronto's Here to Help is a FREE 12-week expressive arts program that begins the healing journey of children (4-18 years old) and their mothers/gender diverse parents who have experienced domestic violence.

Tuesdays from 5:30-8:00p.m. | Scarborough

What does the Here to Help program offer?

- Three sessions per year (Spring: April to June, fall: September to January, Winter: January to March)
- Art activities, mindfulness, games and stories to support enhancing and building strengths and resources about domestic violence
- An opportunity for children and their mothers/gender diverse parents to learn they are not alone, and they are not responsible for the domestic violence they experienced
- Support in learning ways to handle feelings
- A safe place for children and their mothers/gender diverse parents to explore their feelings and share their thoughts
- Child care is provided (for children under 4 years old)
- Hot meals are supplied each week during the session
- Transportation support is available
- Interpreters are available

PLEASE NOTE: Families must be pre-registered and complete an intake before the program begins.
